Sometimes, you have to show off a little to attract the right partner.

Most of the time, Western National Mutual is a mild-mannered Midwestern company. But every so often, it's time to go courting.

We market only through independent agents, and we have a lot to offer: financial stability, strong relationships, quality products and services, and a simple commitment to honesty.

Our complete portfolio includes personal lines and commercial insurance, including workers' compensation.

We are appointing new agencies in selected areas. Call (952) 835-5350 or (800) 862-6070, or visit www.wnins.com. It could be the beginning of a beautiful relationship.
